There is a ton of controversy around the Olympics these days, and for good reason. They just aren't what they used to be. Here are some pics from the 1972 winter Olympics hosted in Sapporo. They built the men's downhill and women's downhill on Eniwa Dake and then subsequently removed all the lifts and most facilities. All that remains is a ghost town of a resort. Teine used to have two lifts in the back bowls. An avalanche took out the first lift in the remains of the second ... もっと見る
